Yes, I'm aware of it. Already getting some press calls but have not responded to any of them.

I think this is all good in terms of potential federal resources to tackle violent crime. I do want to make sure the so-called "Diagnostic Teams" are not reinventing the wheel. We are already putting substantial dollars into the U of M to evaluate strategies under the OSC plan. We need to get any federal "Diagnostic Team" to work with us on that rather than going off in a different direction.

All,

There s not a lot of detail in this plan. We definitely need to huddle to get on the same page about what this means. Can you be in the mayor s office around 11:15?
